NOTICE. The St. Louis Republican Douglas organ, is enraged at Mr. Buchanan that is reproaches him with the alleged fact that his father was a spy in the Revolutionary War, the confabulation of whose property was ordered by the Continental Congress.

AN OLD FASHIONED VENDEUR.

Mrs. Hunt, Brooks, and Duer

Make much noise to be sure,

In the market house, offering to sell men!

"They remind one," Quip says,

"How, in oldfashioned days,

Auctioneers were preceded by bell-men.

IT GEN. FRANKLIN PIERCE, ex-President of the United States, has written a letter to B. F. Halleck of Massachusetts, taking a position favorable to Breckinridge as the successor of James Buchanan.

IT The report that Ex-Governor Johnson of Pennsylvania had declared for Bell and Everett, is not true; he declared himself for Lincoln and Hamlin.

IT Douglass attwenty—an example for young men—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Douglass at fifty—a warning for young men.

IT The Detroit Tribune says: "Some of the Douglass papers who are trying to identify the leading Democrats with their faction, claim Gen. Cass as a Douglass man. We understand that he is unreserved in the expression of his preference for Breckinridge."

The Albany Evening Journal says: "Prominent members of the Democratic factions, are still trying to unite on one Electoral ticket in this State. And they talk about it as if it might be of some service to them. But what service can it be? Republicans are quite indifferent about it, because they can whip them just as effectively combined as disunited. It is simply a question whether Lincoln shall have 75,000 or 50,000 majority. Either figure will answer. Let the Union be effected, by all means. The sooner the better."

IT John C. Breckinridge is beaten in his own precinct, his own city, his own County, his own District, and his own State.

IT DEMOCRATIC MOTTOES.—"We Poked them in 1844; we Pierced them in 1852; we Bucked them in 1856; we're Brecking now and our grave is dug."

IT Col. Forney writing from a watering place, takes occasion to say:

"I am no dead head." I pay my bill like the rest of this gay confection."

IT The census taker in New London, Connecticut, found a woman who gave her own age as 28 years, and her oldest son was 23!

IT Vanity Fair says the three ages of a Senator are mile-age, post-age and patron-age.

IT What does this mean?—We find the following in the Louisville Democrat:

BRECKINRIDGE MEN AND ALL OTHERS, COME TO THE MARK.—A gentleman authorizes us to make the following proposition:

One hundred dollars to a thousand that the Hon. John C. Breckinridge does not run for the Presidency in November next. Persons desiring to take the bet will apply at this office.

IT The Michigan Farmer estimates the wheat crop of that State this year at 9,000,000 bushels.

IT The Mt. Vernon Banner says "that Judge Brinkerhoff has decided that a negro, less than half black, is a white man and entitled to the right of suffrage." Let alone the fact that the Democratic judges decided the same way years ago, that the banner has queer notions of what constitutes a negro. We have heard of mulattoes, quadroons and octofoons, but never before heard of a "negro less than half black."—Sandusky Register.

IT The Ellis man in the late North Carolina papers denounced Pool as an agrarian forsooth because he was in favor of taxing slaves like other property, upon their real value. It was this outcry that helped to prevent Pool's election, but the old North State will have to come to this system of agrarianism sooner or later, and so will Virginia.

IT The POPULATION OF ILLINOIS.—The census returns from Illinois already received at the Bureau in Washington indicate the total population of that State to be one million eight hundred thousand in 1860. On the basis of one Congressman to every one hundred and twenty thousand inhabitants, it will now be entitled to elect members of Congress instead of nine.

IT The Union hopes the Douglas papers will not treat the subject of Mr. Douglas' religious belief. Nobody has asked them to do so. The matter has only been submitted to the reflection of such consistent men as the Brookses, who kept up a fire in 1856 about Col. Fremont's being a Catholic.—Rochester Democrat.

IT The St. Louis Express (Bell and Everett organ) asserts most positively that thirty thousand dollars was sent to that city two years ago, by Postmaster Fowler of New York, now a fugitive defaulter, to aid in defeating Frank Blair. The Express declares that whenever the proof is demanded, it shall be produced. It will be remembered that the Administration was remarkably easy with Fowler, having had no regular settlement with him for years. No particular pains have been taken to arrest him.

IT The Galveston Civilian publishes a letter from the Postmaster at Buchanan, giving an unqualified contradiction to the story of the burning of a colporter at that place. The writer says "it is a fabrication from beginning to end, and with no foundation in truth whatever. No circumstance upon which it can be supposed to be based," has ever happened here or in hearing of here."

IT The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

"All shades of Democrats are thunder struck by Mr. Blair's success in St. Louis. The more sanguine fear that it is an indication of the great strength of the Republicans in the West."

IT The Exodus from Ireland continues thus far at as great a ratio as in 1859. The population of the country is now 533,500 persons less than it was in 1851, when the last census was taken.

IT Gov. Stewart, of Missouri, being in St. Louis the other day, the Evening Bulletin says, "strange to say the Governor was sober up to going to press."

IT "I care not whether Slavery is voted up or voted down."—S. A. Douglas.

"He that is not for freedom is against it."—Patrick Henry.

LONG AND CAREFUL INVESTIGATION has enabled J. L. Curtis, in compounding his Mammaline Liniment, and Compound Syrup of Sassafras, to provide the public with the best and most complete remedies of the day. We have frequently heard these medicines spoken of in the highest terms, as certain to give relief when all other remedies fail. One 25 cent bottle often produces remarkable results. Every family should be constantly provided with them. There is no telling when occasion may arise for their use.
